Heart Stop First Responders 6

This is the sixth book of the First Responders series written by Radclyffe. This time the plot focuses on situations within the medical examination department, where the causes of death are determined, instead of going into the frenetic pace of hospital urgencies, which is the usual environment in the medical novels of this author. As usual, too, secondary couples play an important role in the story, sometimes diverting us from the main plot. The medical language is very detailed and profuse, as we

An ambulance is necessary to transport the patient, but other medical responders can perform the first step. They're called First Responders, a term that's evolved in the media—especially since 9/11—to mean all emergency responders, but officially just refers to the medical folks who beat the ambulance to the scene. The most common first responders are firefighters, but there are other ...
