Never sell the product – sell the dream. This is a similar concept to top-level poker players when they say, “Play the man, not the cards .”. Or the master musician who says, “ Don’t play the notes, play the music .”. The message is the same, no matter how you say it: It’s always about the people and how you make them feel.

A big part of selling the dream is showing them that not only is the dream possible, but also that it's possible for them. They have to believe in what they want for their dream AND they have to be committed to making it happen. 'Cause if they don't believe they can actually do it, why would they spend any money to make it happen?
