Michelle Paver is a class author, she is prolific for sure, but this does not detract from the quality of her writing. I found her work to be far more than just an example of good writing techniques to share with my class. I read the whole series, as did many of my students, having been hooked by the first chapter of the first book.

Soul eater, Michelle Paver

Michelle Paver is one of those - her characters bristle with the same warrior energy as my own and the way she brings their worlds alive by focussing on what they eat, wear and say is a sensory feast. I adore her connection to nature and the way each clan lives according to the attributes of their clan animal.
