Frank Belson didn't ask too many questions about the past of his new wife Lisa St. Claire, even after she suddenly and mysteriously disappeared one night. He brings in Spenser to help locate her, who begins to piece together her complete life story while submerged in the Latino shadow world of the town of Proctor.

Thin Air (TV Movie 2000) - IMDb
A beautiful woman vanishes, leaving Spenser to probe the mysteries of her checkered past, in a masterful work of detection that leads him on a trail of obsession and violence. Taut, wily, and witty, Robert B. Parker's Spenser thrillers are considered private-eye classics in the grand American tradition. Now, with Thin Air, he gives us a tale as haunting as a Coltrane solo, packing the wallop of a knockout punch.

Thin air : a Spenser novel (Book, 1995) [WorldCat.org]
Spenser is out to solve the mystery of an actor killed on stage during a performance, and Hawk and Vinnie join in, mostly as his body guards. The plot is not complicated and the characters are great, including Spenser's girlfriend Susan, who adds romance as well as humor and analytical skills. Spenser's dry wit keeps you laughing throughout. e
